

"Early American Charm: A Miniature Vignette Workshop"

Presented by the NC Museum of Dolls, Toys & Miniatures

Saturday, April 18, 2026 9:00 AM-5:00 PM

Come join Dia Crissey-Baum (Tailgate Minis) and Kari Crawford (MiniEtchers) for a hands-on miniature workshop.

In this guided class, participants will create a charming vignette featuring a primitive pie safe and chair, thoughtfully designed as an homage to early American craftsmanship and tradition.

This workshop is limited to 20 participants and features all 3 scales. Your choice.

Door Prizes + Museum Tour + Helpers + Sales Tables

Lunch is included and sales tables will be available for shopping, offering a wonderful opportunity to browse and purchase miniatures and related items throughout the day.

Exchange Ideas & Get Inspired! If you want to participate in SWAPS ideas below. Please bring 20 in the same size you are signing up for. Ex. If you sign up for 1/2 scale, bring 20 identical 1/2 scale swaps.

Participants are encouraged to personalize their primitive vignette with a variety of miniature accessories. Suggested items include baskets of apples or eggs, pies, cakes, loaves of bread, and cheese wrapped in cloth; stoneware crocks and jugs; tin or pewter plates, bowls, and mugs; ceramic pie plates; rolling pins and dough bowls; wooden trenchers or bread boards; candles and lamps; books and picture frames; linens, rugs, and chair cushions; dried herbs or corn bundles; flour sacks or grain bags; flowers in simple vases; and other early American pantry and kitchen details.
